

Rules and Regulations on Occupational Health and Safety OHS

Mosakowski Medical Research Institute PAS

Toxicology Research Laboratory

Rules and regulations on the use of facilities and conducting research at Toxicology Research Laboratory (TRL)

1. Only the following persons are allowed on TRL premises: authorised employees, technical specialists and equipment service technicians, the persons appointed by the research project managers who have undergone the relevant training in line with the applicable regulations, representatives of the inspecting institutions, visitors and collaborators of MMRI researchers upon the approval of the Director of the Institute and consultation with the Head of TRL and in the company of authorised to enter TRL premises. parties that are not specified in these Rules and Regulations are not allowed in TRL.
2. Each entry to TRL premises shall be recorded in the entry and exit log located in a designated place.
3. Good hygiene and personal protective equipment shall be used: shoe covers, protective clothing, disposable gloves, masks, caps. Each and every time you move between the lab room your hands shall be disinfected.
4. ATTENTION! The persons who have had any contact with the laboratory animals on the same day shall not be allowed on TRL premises.
5. Once the work has been completed, the user shall leave the work area clean and tidy, and disinfected if necessary. It is the responsibility of the cleaning staff to thoroughly clean the room.
6. Any personal injuries (cuts, burns, scratches) shall be reported to the head of the laboratory. The First Aid Kit is situated at the entrance to the laboratory.

7. It is strictly forbidden to eat and drink outside the premises intended for this purpose.
8. In the event of a fire you shall follow the fire regulations applicable at MMRI.
9. All irregularities in working conditions or other failures shall be reported forthwith to the head of the laboratory or OHS inspector BHP whichever is relevant.